Tonight's the night – (x4 or x8)

D
Bruce Berry was a working man
He used to load that Econoline van
A sparkle was in his eye - But his life was in his hands.
Well, late at night - when the people were gone
He used to pick up my guitar
And sing a song in a shaky voice
That was real as the day was long

C                                                                 D                                                                 C
Tonight's the night, yes it is, - tonight's the night
D                                                                 C                                                                 D                                                                 C
Tonight's the night, yes it is, - tonight's the night

Early in the mornin' at the break of day
He used to sleep until the afternoon
If you never heard him sing - I guess you won't too soon
'Cause people let me tell you
It sent a chill up and down my spine
When I picked up the telephone - and heard that he'd died
Out on the mainline

C                                                                 D                                                                 C

Break -- D

Bruce Berry was a working man
He used to load that Econoline van
Well, early in the morning - just about the break of day
He used to sleep until the afternoon

C                         D              C
Tonight's the night, yes it is, - tonight's the night
D                         C              D                 C
Tonight's the night, yes it is, - tonight's the night
C                         D              C
Tonight's the night, - tonight's the night
D                         C              D                 C
Tonight's the night- tonight's the night
